Terms and Conditions

The full amount for the workshop is to be paid two (2) weeks prior to the booked performance night.

There can be no refunds or reduction in tickets for performances after the full amount has been paid. Changes to student numbers must be in writing and received no later than one (1) prior to the workshop. Any changes to student numbers after this time are at the discretion of The Curator's Theatre and subject to availability.

The booking is made on behalf of the school and the school accepts liability to make payments before the due dates.

Should a production/workshop be cancelled due to Covid or other event beyond the control of The Curators' Theatre, TCT will organise a full refund of tickets.

The workshop you are buying a ticket for is being sold at full capacity, in line with the current government guidelines. However, there is a chance that by the time the production happens we may be requested by law to return to a socially distanced capacity.

If we have to reduce the capacity then we will confirm bookings based on the date on which they were booked with the earliest bookings being given priority. If there is not space for everyone then later bookings will be notified and you will be eligible for a full refund.

The Curator's Theatre retains the right to change or amend the terms and conditions at any time.
